The Blue Slip

Harmony Hills Elementary School, Maryland

Topic: Reducing Behavior Problems

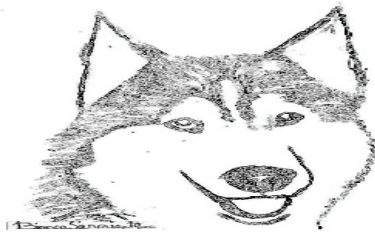

Practice: Teach Skills

Promoting good behaviors is a schoolwide approach for reducing behavior problems used at Harmony Hills Elementary. The Blue Slip is a system staff use for “catching” a student doing something good. Any staff member, substitute, or volunteer can give a student or group of students a Blue Slip for following the rules or doing something good. For example, staff give Blue Slips to students who demonstrate their ability to live the School Pledge: Be respectful, responsible, and helpful; follow school rules and classroom procedures; and make good choices. Teachers can use this idea to develop strategies to catch students behaving well in their classrooms or throughout the school.

Adults in the building observe the students and capture what they saw on a Blue Slip, noting what actually happened and the rules that they saw the student following. Staff and student sign the Blue Slip. Then the teacher sends the slip home for parents to sign and acknowledge their child’s good behavior.

Administrators honor those students that earn Blue Slips and announce the students' names and deeds on the PA system at the school. Each student's classroom honors the student as well. The Harmony Hills Discipline Committee monitors the Blue Slip system and makes sure that every child in the building receives at least one Blue Slip each semester.
